Introduction

Grammarway 2 is the second book in a four-level grammar series presented in full colour for learners of the English language at post-elementary level. The book is available in two editions - with or without answers - and is suitable for self-study or classroom use as a supplement to any course at this level.

The aim of the book is to help learners understand English grammar structures through comprehensive theory tables and functional examples, accompanied by a wealth of attractive photographs and illustrations.

The book adheres to the principle that every structure should first be heard, then practised in oral and, finally, in written form. Based on the use of full-colour visual stimuli, the book encourages learners to speak before writing, and allows them to practise English structures through a variety of enjoyable and useful activities.

The book consists of 20 units, each focusing on a particular grammar topic.

A typical unit contains:

- presentation of grammar structures by means of visual prompts
- simple, concise explanations of the grammar structures
- examples in everyday conversational English, together with a few expressions showing slightly more formal use
- exercises practising the new structures, to help learners use correct, appropriate patterns in everyday situations."
- · speaking and writing activities to practise the new structures in oral and written form
- · a revision box in each unit

A revision unit follows every five units to consolidate material presented in previous units.

The Student's Book is accompanied by a Teacher's Book containing:

- guidance on presenting the theory of each unit, with or without Picture Flashcards
- · a full key to the exercises in the Student's Book
- · four tests in two separate versions each

The Picture Flashcards which accompany this book can be used for lively, motivating presentation of the target grammar structures.

Thanks

The authors would like to thank Rania Dunn, Anna Miller, Laura Houston, Jonathan Harrison and Steven Davies for their help in producing this book. Many thanks to the Express Publishing design team. We would also like to thank those institutions and teachers who piloted the manuscript, and whose comments and feedback were invaluable in the production of the book.

Present Simple

Richard Taylor and Sarah Perkins work in the same office.

What time do they start work? Sarah arrives at work at 9 o'clock but Richard doesn't get to the office until 10 o'clock.

We form the present simple with the subject (i.e. the subject pronoun or noun) and the main verb. We usually add an -s to the third person singular in the affirmative. In the interrogative and negative forms, we use the auxiliary verb do/don't with I, you, we, they and does/doesn't with he, she and it. We do not add an -s to the main verb when it appears with does/doesn't.

We form questions and negations with the auxiliary verb did/did not (didn't), the subject and the verb "use" without -d.

A: Will your father let you take the car?

B: No, I'm afraid he won't.

We form the future simple with will and the bare infinitive. Will is used for all persons.

e.g. Susan will post the letters tomorrow morning.

We form questions by putting will before the subiect.

e.g. Will Kate lend you her book?

We form negations by putting not after will. The short form of will not is won't.

e.g. He will not/won't pay the bill.

Identifying/Non-identifying Clauses

There are two types of relative clauses: identifying relative clauses and non-identifying relative clauses.

- An Identifying relative clause gives necessary information and is essential to the meaning of the main sentence. The clause is not put in commas. Who, which and that can be omitted when they are the object of the relative clause.
 - e.g. People risk their lives. (Which people? We don't know. The meaning of the sentence is not clear.)
 People who/that drive dangerously risk their lives.
 (Which people? Those who drive dangerously.)
 The book was exciting. (Which book? We do not know. The meaning of the sentence is not clear.)
 The book which/that/— you lent me was exciting. (Which book? The one you lent me.)
- A non-identifying relative clause gives extra information and is not essential to the meaning of the main sentence. In non-identifying relative clauses the relative pronouns cannot be omitted. That cannot replace who or which. The clause is put in commas.
 - e.g. Mr Stevenson is my neighbour. (The meaning of the sentence is clear.)

Mr Stevenson, who used to work in a bank, is my neighbour. (The relative clause gives extra information.)

My car is a Fiat Uno. (The meaning of the sentence is clear.)

My car, which I bought five years ago, is a Fiat Uno. (The relative clause gives extra information.)

Fill in the relative pronoun. Put commas where necessary. Write I for identifying, NI for non-identifying and if the relative can be omitted or not.

- Mr Cross, who lives next door, broke his leg last week.
 That's the woman
- drives the school bus.

e.g. I've known Sharon since we were at school together. (NOT: I've been knowing Sharon since we were at school together.)

Possessives

Bob and Ted have got briefcases. These are Bob's and Ted's briefcases.

We use a) the possessive case, b) possessive adjectives and c) possessive pronouns to show possession or relationship.

- The possessive case is formed as follows:
 - A: for people or animals:
 - · with 's for singular nouns Ken's car
 - with ' for plural nouns ending in -s. the girls' dresses, the birds' nests
 - with 's for irregular plural nouns. the women's clothes
 - when the same thing belongs to two or more people, we add 's only to the last noun.
 - e.g. Gina and Tom's car. (The car belongs to both of them.)
 - when two or more things belong to two or more people and we want to show that each person has his/her own thing, we add 's to each noun.
 - e.g. Claire's and Kate's uniforms. (Each girl has her own uniform.)
 - B: we use of to talk about things or parts of things. e.g. the roof of the house
 - (NOT: the house's roof because 'house' is a thing)
- When we refer to place or time, the possessive case is formed as follows:
 - phrase of place (shop/business, etc.) + 's at the butcher's (we mean the shop)
 - phrase showing measurement of time+ 's/' (to show how long things last)
 a day's walk/two hours' drive

UNIT 9 Model Verbs 1

The verbs must, can, could, may, might, will, would, shall, should and ought are modal auxiliary verbs. They express certainty, possibility, obligation, necessity, lack of necessity, etc.

The main characteristics of modal verbs are the following:

- they do not take an -s, -ing or -ed suffix. e.g. He can cook. (NOT: He cans cook.)
- they form questions, negations and short answers without the auxiliary verb 'do'. e.g. May I go now? (NOT: Do I may go now?)

They shouldn't make any noise. (NOT: They don't should make any noise.)

- they are followed by a bare infinitive except for ought which is followed by a to infinitive. e.g. You must fasten your seat-belt. (NOT: You must to fasten your seat-belt.)
- they do not form all tenses. They usually have present or past tense.
 e.g. He can play water polo. (present tense) He could ski when he was young. (past tense)

- Must and have to express obligation and necessity. e.g. You must come home early.
 I have to be at the office at nine o'clock.
- Must can only be used in the present tense. We use have to to form all the other tenses.

Infinitive - Too/Enough - The "-ing form"

The Infinitive

They want to spend their life together. They would like to have two children. They may buy a car next year.

The infinitive is the root form of the verb. There are two kinds of infinitive:

- a) the to infinitive e.g. to stay, to go
- the bare infinitive which is the root form of the verb without to. e.g. stay, go

We use the to - infinitive:

- after verbs such as advise, agree, decide, expect, hope, manage, offer, promise, refuse, seem, want, etc.
 - e.g. He refused to answer my question.
- after be + adjective such as glad, happy, nice, sorry, etc.
 - e.g. It is nice to be back home.

 Jack will be glad to see you.
- after some verbs such as know, learn, remember, ask, want to know, etc. when there is a question word (who, what, where, how, etc.) after them. 'Why' is not followed by an infinitive, but by a subject + verb.

e.g. I don't know how to answer this question.

- but I didn't know why he was crying.
- with too and enough.
 e.g. It's too cold to go outside.
 Joe isn't old enough to vote.
- to express purpose.
 e.g. I went to the florist's to buy some flowers.

We use the bare infinitive:

- after modal verbs (can, must, etc.). e.g. You can go home now.
- after the verbs let and make.
 e.g. My parents let me have a party for my birthday last month.

Dear Lucy,

Hi! I hope you're well. I'm writing to tell you what a busy weekend I had. As you know, I had to go away on business, so Nick was at home with the baby. As usual, he had done only half the things I had asked him to. He had fed the baby but he hadn't

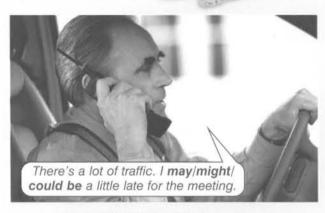

When I asked him why he hadn't done all the things, he told me he had just been lazy! I was so angry with him!

Anyway, I've got to go now because I have a million things to do and I haven't got time to be lazy.

Best wishes, Linda

UNIT 13 The Passive

The Parthenon was built in the 5th century BC. It is visited by thousands of tourists every year.

We form the passive with the verb to be and the past participle of the main verb.

to be + past participle (pp)

The passive verb forms are:

present simple: am/is/are + pp The office is cleaned twice a week.

present continuous: am/is/are being + pp The office is being cleaned now.

was/were + pp past simple: The office was cleaned last week.

was/were being + pp past continuous: The office was being cleaned when the boss arrived.

present perfect simple: have/has been + pp The office has not been cleaned yet.

past perfect simple: had been + pp The office had been cleaned by two o'clock.

future simple: will be + pp The office will be cleaned tomorrow.

We form questions by putting the verb to be before the subject. e.g. Is your car being serviced?

We form negations with the word not. e.g. The furniture has not been delivered yet.

We form the passive of infinitives like this:

to be + past participle

e.g. He wants to be told the truth.

We form the passive of modal verbs like this:

modal verb + be + past participle

e.g. The roof of the house must be repaired.

Use

We use the passive when we want to show that the action of the verb is more important than the person who carries out the action.

The missing climber was found yesterday. (The action (was found) is more important than the person who found the climber.)

- The agent (the person who carries out the action) is introduced with the preposition by and is mentioned only when the identity of the agent is important or needs to be stated.
 - e.g. Australia was discovered by Captain Cook. (by Captain Cook - The identity of the agent is important.)
- The agent is not mentioned when:
 - it is unknown.

Jim's car was stolen last night. (We don't know who stole Jim's car.)

b) it is unimportant.

Olive oil is produced in Mediterranean countries. (The agent is unimportant.)

c) it is obvious from the context.

The bank robbers are being chased. (It is obvious that the police are chasing them.)

Turning the active into the passive

To turn a sentence from the active into the passive:

- a) The object of the active sentence becomes the subject in the passive sentence.
- b) The active verb changes into a passive form.
- c) The subject of the active sentence becomes the agent.

	subject	verb	object		subject	verb	agent
active	Kim	baked	a cake.	passive	A cake	was baked	by Kim.

Study the following table:

	active	passive
present simple	She types the letters.	The letters are typed.
present continuous	She is typing the letters.	The letters are being typed.
past simple	She typed the letters.	The letters were typed.
past continuous	She was typing the letters.	The letters were being typed present perfect simple	She has typed the letters.	The letters have been typed.
past perfect simple	She had typed the letters.	The letters had been typed.
uture simple	She will type the letters.	The letters will be typed.
nfinitive	She has to type the letters.	The letters have to be typed.
modals (modal + be + pp)	She may type the letters.	The letters may be typed.

- Only the verbs that take an object can be turned into the passive. e.g. Susan cleans the silver. The silver is cleaned by Susan. But: It is snowing today. (This sentence cannot be turned into the passive because the verb does not take an object.)
- When the subject of the active sentence is one of the following words: people, one, someone/somebody, they, he, etc., the agent is often omitted in the passive sentence.
 e.g. People watch TV all over the world. TV is watched all over the world (by people).
- Object pronouns (me, you, him, etc.) become subject pronouns (I, you, he, etc.) in the passive. e.g. He gave this book to me. I was given this book.
- When the verb of the active sentence is followed by a preposition, the preposition is kept in the passive sentence as well. e.g. Burglars broke into our house last night. Our house was broken into last night.

Rewrite the sentences in the passive.	6 7	Someone left the front door open. Jenny didn't break the window.
The pop star sang the song. The sona was suna by the pop star.	8	Someone is using the computer.
The chef hasn't made dinner.		His brother taught him to drive.
An explorer has found a dinosaur egg.	10	Many people speak English.
Mrs Gates will look after the baby.	11	The doctor had already told him to go on a diet.
They won't take him home after the party.	12	The author is writing a new book.
	The pop star sang the song. The song was sung by the pop star. The chef hasn't made dinner. An explorer has found a dinosaur egg. Mrs Gates will look after the baby. They won't take him home after the party.	The pop star sang the song. The song was sung by the pop star. The chef hasn't made dinner. An explorer has found a dinosaur egg. Mrs Gates will look after the baby.

Turn the following questions into the passive.

Do they make bread in this factory?
 Is bread made in this factory?
 Will Susan decorate the bedroom tomorrow?
 Did they find the ring in the garden?
 Is Tom drawing the picture?

 Has Simon sent the invitations yet?

Note:

When we want to find out who or what did something, then the passive is formed as follows: Who/What ... by?

Had Paul repaired the door before he left for work?

e.g. Who was America discovered by?

Write questions in the passive to which the words in bold are the answers, as in the examples.

- 1 Captain Cook discovered Australia. Who was Australia discovered by?
- 2 A dog was chasing Paul. What was Paul being chased by?
- 3 Simon is going to organise the party.
- 4 A bee stung him.
- 5 Fiona cooked this delicious turkey.
- 6 An international company publishes these books.
- 7 A bomb killed the soldier.

With verbs which take two objects, such as ask, bring, tell, send, show, teach, promise, offer, give, pay, lend, etc., we can form the passive in two ways.

Active: Someone sent Helen some flowers.

Passive: a) Helen was sent some flowers.

b) Some flowers were sent to Helen.

The first way is used more often because we are more interested in the person (Helen) than the thing (some flowers).

Rewrite the sentences in the passive in both ways, as in the example.

1	His father gave Billy a new bicycle.
	a) Billy was given a new bicycle by his father.
	b) A new bicycle was given to Billy by his father.
2	Fred has offered Mary a watch.

UNIT 14 Reported Speech

Diana had a meeting yesterday.

Today, Diana met Alison. Alison asked her what they had said. Diana told her that they would use her plans.

- Direct Speech is the exact words someone said. We use quotation marks (' ') in direct speech.
 e.g. 'I'm very tired,' Mary said.
- Reported Speech is the exact meaning of what someone said, but not the exact words. We do not use quotation marks in reported speech. We can either use the word that after the introductory verb or we can omit it. e.g. Mary said (that) she was very tired.

Say - Tell

- both in direct and reported speech without the preposition to when it is not followed by the person being spoken to.
 e.g. Jerry said, 'I need some money.' Jerry said (that) he needed some money.
- both in direct and reported speech with the preposition to when it is followed by the person being spoken to.
 - e.g. Jerry said to me, 'I need some money.' Jerry said to me (that) he needed some money.
- in expressions such as: say good morning/afternoon, etc., say something, say one's prayers, say so, etc.

We use the verb tell without the preposition to:

- both in direct and reported speech when it is followed by the person we are talking to. e.g. Jerry told me, 'I need some money.' Jerry told me (that) he needed some money. (NOT: Jerry told to me that he...)
- in expressions such as: tell the truth, tell a lie, tell a secret, tell a story, tell the time, tell the difference, tell sb one's name, tell sb the way, tell one from another, etc.

Fill in the gaps with say or tell in the correct tense.

Reported Statements

Laura told Jim that the hot dogs were delicious and that he was a great cook. Ed told Celia that he was having a great time and that he really liked their new house.

- When we report statements (that is, a positive or negative sentence), we use the verbs 'say' or 'tell' to introduce the statement. Pronouns and possessive adjectives change according to the meaning. e.g. Sophie said, 'I bought a new camera yesterday.'
 - Sophie said (that) she had bought a new camera the day before.
- When the introductory verb is in the past simple, the verb tenses change as follows:

Direct Speech

Present Simple

'I want to find a better job,' he said.

Present Continuous

'They're playing table tennis,' he said.

Present Perfect

'I've ordered a new fridge,' she said.

Past Simple

Past Continuous

He said they were playing table tennis.

Past Perfect

She said she had ordered a new fridge.

Past Perfect

Certain words and time expressions change as follows:

tonight, today, this week/month/year, etc. now yesterday, last night/week/month/year, etc. tomorrow, next week/month/year, etc. two days/months/years, etc. ago this, these here come

Reported Speech

Reported Speech

When the introductory verb is in the present, future or present perfect simple or when the sentence expresses something which is always true (general truth), there are no changes in the verb tenses in reported speech.

Direct speech: Reported speech: She says, 'I don't like him.'

'It is cold in the Arctic,' said the teacher. She says (that) she doesn't like him. The teacher said (that) it is cold in the Arctic.

UNIT 15 Conditionals - Wishes

Conditionals

There are three types of conditionals. Each type consists of two parts: the if - clause (hypothesis), which begins with the word if, and the main clause, which shows the result of the hypothesis.

if - clause

main clause

(hypothesis)

(result)

If you are late,

you will miss the bus.

When the if-clause comes before the main clause, they are separated with a comma. When the main clause comes before the if-clause, then they are not separated with a comma.

e.g. If Peter has time, he will come to visit us.

Peter will come to visit us if he has time.

Type 1 Conditionals

If Robert studies hard, he will pass his exams.

Water turns into ice if the temperature falls below 0 °C.

If you don't understand, look at the example.

Type 1 conditionals express a real or very probable situation in the present or future. They are formed as follows:

If - clause	Main clause
If + present simple	→ future simple → present simple → imperative → can/must/may, etc. + + bare infinitive

 We can use unless instead of if...not in the if - clause. The verb is always in the affirmative after unless.

e.g.If you don't hurry, we'll be late for school. Unless you hurry, we'll be late for school.

(NOT: Unless you don't hurry ...)

Adjectives-Adverbs-Comparisons

Adjectives

This is a small village. It looks peaceful. There are some lovely old houses.

- Adjectives describe nouns (a big car). They have the same form in the singular and plural. e.g. a small house - small houses
- Adjectives go before nouns, e.g. a beautiful girl. They can also be used alone after the verb to be and after verbs such as look, smell, sound, feel, taste, etc. e.g. Jack is tall. You look sad.
- There are two kinds of adjectives: opinion adjectives (beautiful, good, etc.), which show what a person thinks of somebody or something, and fact adjectives (long, strong, young, etc.), which give us factual information about age, size, colour, etc.

ORDER OF ADJECTIVES

- Opinion adjectives go before fact adjectives. e.g. a beautiful silk dress
- When there are two or more fact adjectives in a sentence, they usually go in the following order:

	Size	Age	Shape	Colour	Origin	Material
a	small	old	square	blue	Thai	silk	scarf

Farmers wake up early in the morning.

Formation of adverbs

- We usually form an adverb by adding -ly to the adjective.

Subject/Object Questions

Subject questions are questions we ask when we want to find out who or what did something; that is, when we want to know the subject of the sentence. These questions usually begin with the words who, what or which. In subject questions, the verb is in the affirmative form.

e.g. Who sent you this postcard?
(NOT: Who did send you this postcard?)
What happened while I was away?

(NOT: What did happen while I was away?)

subject	verb	object
►Mary	loves	Tom.
►Who	loves	Tom?

Object questions are questions we ask when we want to know the object of the sentence. These questions usually begin with the words who, what or which. In object questions, the verb is in the interrogative form.

e.g. Who did you meet at the theatre? What do you have to tell me?

Question Tags

Question tags are short questions at the end of statements. We mainly use them in speech when we want to confirm something or when we want to find out if something is true or not.

- We form a question tag with the auxiliary or modal verb of the main sentence and the appropriate subject pronoun.
 - e.g. Don is leaving tomorrow, isn't he? Tina can't knit, can she?
- When the verb of the sentence is in the present simple, we form the question tag with the auxiliary verb do/does and the subject pronoun. When the verb is in the past simple, we form the question tag with the auxiliary verb did and the subject pronoun.
 - e.g. Sharon doesn't like dancing, does she? They paid the bill, didn't they?

- When the sentence is positive, the question tag is negative.
 e.g. He robbed the bank, didn't he?
- When the sentence is negative, the question tag
 - is positive.
 e.g. She won't leave without us, will she?
- When the sentence contains a word with a negative meaning like never, hardly, seldom or rarely, the question tag is positive.
 e.g. She hardly goes anywhere, does she?
- Some verbs/expressions form question tags differently. Study the following examples.

I am → aren't I?	I am tall, aren't I?
Imperative → will/won't you?	Stop talking, will/ won't you?
Don't → will you?	Don't move, will you?
Let's → shall we?	Let's sit here, shall we?
I have (got) → haven't I? (=I possess)	He has got a car, hasn't he?
I have → don't I? (other meanings)	You have a big breakfast every day, don't you?
There is/are → isn't/aren't there?	There is a woman in the room, isn't there?

Intenction

When we are sure of the answer and expect agreement, the voice goes down in the question tag.

e.g. These are penguins, aren't they?

When we aren't sure of the answer and we want to check information, the voice goes up in the question tag.

This/That is → isn't it?

e.g. He isn't working at the moment, is he?

This is Tom's coat,

isn't it?

Prepositions - Linking Words

Linking Words

We usually use linking words to join two sentences together. They express time, contrast, reason, result, etc.

The part of the new sentence which contains the linking word is called a clause of time/reason, etc. (depending on the kind of linking word used) and the rest of the sentence is the main clause.

e.g. I was angry. I didn't say anything.

Although I was angry, I didn't say anything.

clause of contrast

main clause

Expressing Reason/Result

- The word because introduces a clause of reason. When the clause of reason comes before the main clause, they are separated with a comma. When the clause of reason follows, no comma is used.
 - e.g. Because it was hot, I opened the window. I opened the window because it was hot.
- The word so introduces a clause of result. The clause of result always comes after the main clause and is separated with a comma. e.g. It was hot, so I opened the window.

Rewrite the sentences using so or because, as in the examples.

- 1 Simon was put in prison because he robbed a bank. Simon robbed a bank, so he was put in prison.
- 2 Lisa was cold, so she put on a sweater.

 Lisa put on a sweater because she was cold.
- 3 Because I was hungry, I made a sandwich.
- 4 It was my birthday, so I had a party.
- 5 I went to bed late last night, so I feel tired today.
- 6 I washed my clothes because they were dirty.
- 7 She forgot to turn off the oven, so the food was burnt.

......

- 8 Because we were bored, we went for a walk.
- 9 The boss was angry because Jenny was late.
- 10 Frank's hair was too long, so he went to the hairdresser's.

Expressing Time

We express time with the following words: when, while, before, after, till/ until, etc.

- When the time clause comes before the main clause, they are separated with a comma. When the time clause comes after, no comma is used. e.g. Before you leave for Paris, please phone me. Please phone me before you leave for Paris.
- Time clauses follow the rule of the sequence of tenses. When the verb in the main clause is in a present/future tense or the imperative, then the verb in the time clause is in a present tense. We do not use future tenses in time clauses.

Present tenses: present simple/continuous, present perfect simple/continuous.

e.g. You can stay here as long as you like.

He will give us the money after he is/has been paid.

Tidy your room before you go out. Keep quiet while I'm working.

When the verb in the main clause is in a past tense, then the verb in the time clause is in a past tense.

Past tenses: past simple/continuous, past perfect simple/continuous.

e.g. She had breakfast after she had taken a shower.

Before he left, he called a taxi.
He had been reading a novel for two hours before he went out.

Study the following table:

Main clause		Time clause
present / future / imperative	-	present / present perfect
past simple / past perfect		past simple / past perfect

(Suggested Answer)

Dear Martha,

... The manager was talking on the phone. When he saw the robbers he stood up. The cashier was counting some money. When he saw the robbers he put his hands up. A young child was sitting on a chair and she started to cry. An old lady who was waiting in the queue near me fainted. The robbers took some money and left. The police arrested them later that day. It was a terrible experience. I hope I won't have another adventure like that too soon! I'll finish my letter here so that I can post it today. Please write when you have time.

Love, Jennifer

Dear Miss Smithers,

Thank you for your letter asking for my advice.

To begin with, if I were you, I would try to find ways to change my life. If you met some new people, you wouldn't feel lonely. If you went out more often, you would feel much happier. If you joined a club, you would make friends more easily. Finally, if you took up some hobbies, you would feel a lot better and a lot more confident.

I hope my advice will help.

Best wishes, Dorothy
